Subject: [Action Required] You are invited to attend GitHub Field Day India 2024 - Delhi

Greetings of the day and congratulations!

You've been selected to attend GitHub Field Day India 2024 - Delhi!

 Read through the email and find the RSVP form at the end.

This year, we received more than 670 amazing applications for GitHub Field Day India 2024 but your contributions to the developer community truly stood out.

GitHub Field Day India will be jam-packed with:

- Speaker sessions to help you get valuable insights about all things community.
- Exclusive chance to drive the discussions in breakout rooms tailor-made for you.
- 1:1 networking to learn from fellow leaders and explore wonderful community practices.
- Participate in student-community-led fun activities to boost your creativity. Or maybe, organize an activity? After all, it's an unconference!

Expect a great day under the beloved purple umbrella full of delightful surprises. This is your chance to join an adventure with OG community leaders and geek out over your passions.

 Date: July 20, 2024

 Timing: 8:30 AM IST Onwards

 Venue: Microsoft Corporation (India) Pvt Ltd, Suraj Tal & Chandratal MPR, DLF Downtown, Level 8, Block 2, DLF Phase 3, Sector 25A, Gurgaon

 Location: <https://maps.app.goo.gl/2AN9eCEZAYNMj3xp9>

 Please confirm your attendance by filling out the  RSVP Form with a "Yes" before June 29, 2024, 11:59 pm IST positively. If you're unable to make it this year, a quick "No" on the form will be highly appreciated. We strictly advise against sharing this form with your peers.

Just so you know, if we don't get your RSVP submission by the deadline, we'll unfortunately have to mark you as unable to attend. If you're marked as unable to attend, you won't be allowed to enter the venue, which we would absolutely hate!

We can't wait to see you there and hear all your community stories! In the meantime, hop into our Discord Server and have a chat with other attendees!

Share your excitement on social media using #GitHubFieldDayIndia & #GHFD2024 and keep an eye on X (formerly Twitter) @GHFieldDayIndia and Instagram @ghfielddayindia for further details.

With gratitude,
GitHub Field Day India Team
